

STATE FREEDOM VOTED EINSTEIN AND WEIZMANN

But Falconer Still Insists They Shouldn't Receive Keys
of the City.

ALBANY, April 7.—The Senate has on resolution of Senator Nathan Straus Jr., and in contrast to the action of the Board of Aldermen in New York on Tuesday, extended "the handshake of fellowship and heartfelt welcome" to Dr. Albert Einstein and Dr. Chaim Weizmann, and unanimously offered them the freedom of the State of New York. The Assembly will adopt the resolution today.

New York failed to present the freedom of this city to Dr. Einstein and Dr. Weizmann because Alderman Bruce M. Falconer, Republican, prevented the necessary unanimous consent by his objection, saying:

"Who is this Einstein? I never heard of these men and don't know anything about them."

He hints to-day he will oppose action also at the special meeting to-morrow, though there is no doubt the resolution will be passed then.

HUNGER STRIKERS SENT TO BARRACKS

Survivors at Cork Removed From Jail Hospital After an Attempted Escape.

COBLENZ, Ireland, April 7.—Nine survivors of the famous hunger strike conducted in the Cork Jail by Sinn Féin prisoners last autumn have been removed from the jail to the detention barracks connected with military headquarters. This step was taken by the authorities because of the sensational attempt about two weeks ago to rescue some of the men.

At the time of the attempted jail delivery all the prisoners were in the jail hospital, where they had been undergoing treatment since declaring off their hunger strike. They were immediately taken to their cells and confined as ordinary prisoners.

THREE ARE SLAIN IN COUNTY TYRONE

Former Soldier and a Former Policeman Are Killed in Riotousness.

BELFAST, April 7.—Charles Slevin, John Devine and Daniel Doherty, residents of Dromore, County Tyrone, were removed from their homes last night by armed men and their bodies were found outside the village this morning.

It is believed they were victims of reprisals for attacks made upon Crown forces Tuesday night.

John Weyman, a former policeman, and John Gillingham, a former soldier, were taken from their homes in Londonderry, near Castlebrink, in County Londonderry, and shot dead to-day.
